Kitab Jawahirul Bukhari Pdf 14

Narrated Thabit: Abu Qatadah reported the Prophet that Allah's Messenger () said, "If you love something then avoid what you love, and if you hate something then stop doing it and if you love and hate something then help him." (Sahih Bukhari, Hadith #2250) Narrated Abu Salama: I heard the Prophet saying, "The Muslims will live where the battle of Umatul Hind is fought and his enemy will live where the battle of Badr is fought." (Sahih Bukhari, Hadith #4004) All of you can read the following in Sahih al-Bukhari (8volume). "Allah, His Angels and the believers ask for the forgiveness of Allah by His fault, and those who reject these will have a terrible retribution" Imam An-Nawawi al-Kazali says:The Sunnah is like the roots of trees. If you know the roots, you can know the fruits. And if the fruits are good, the roots are also good, and if they are bad, the roots are also bad Did not the Holy Prophetsatell Al-Bukhari and Muslim that whoever is a seeker will be believed, whoever is a believer will be a seeker, and whoever goes astray will go astray by himself and will never be blamed for his sins. Imam Ahmad says:Among the miracles of Allah to the one who believes, he will be admitted to paradise. And to the one who disbelieves, he will be admitted to the fire of hell (Taharan, Kitabul Amr, II. 17) One of the proofs as to why this massacre was not to be carried out by theKhalifatullah al-Mahdiis that the Holy Prophetsahas mentioned i.e. He will put an end to wars and bloodshed (Sahih al-Bukhari, Kitabul Anbiaa, Bab Nuzooli Isa) as a hallmark of the coming Mahdi. Thus, how can it be that on the one hand the Holy ProphetsaIs declaring the coming Mahdi as a standard-bearer of peace and reconciliation, and on the other hand, he is informing of such bloodshed of the people of theummahof Muhammadaas never carried out by anyone in the past 5ec8ef588b
