The best strategies and tricks for maximizing your profits and expanding your office in Office Fever MOD APK

Office Fever MOD APK is a game that requires some strategies and tricks to make the most out of it. Here are some of them:

- Balance your hiring and upgrading. You don't want to hire too many employees that you can't afford to pay or upgrade your office too much that you can't maintain it. You also don't want to hire too few employees that you can't meet the demand or upgrade your office too little that you can't attract customers and investors.
- Focus on the most profitable departments and facilities. You can check the income and expenses of each department and facility by tapping on them. You can also see the demand and satisfaction of each department by looking at the icons above them. You want to invest in the departments and facilities that have high income, low expenses, high demand, and high satisfaction.
- Use the prestige system wisely. You can increase your prestige by upgrading your office, completing tasks, achieving milestones, and reaching new levels. You can also decrease your prestige by firing employees, downgrading your office, failing tasks, losing money, and staying at the same level. You want to have high prestige because it increases your income, unlocks new features, and gives you access to more opportunities.

- Take advantage of the offline mode. You can earn money even when you are not playing the game by enabling the offline mode. You can also increase your offline earnings by hiring managers, executives, and VIPs who can run your office while you are away. You can also use boosters, such as time warp, double income, or auto collect, to multiply your offline earnings.
